LIEUT. BURBANK AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Slated for Dismissal and Imprisonment.

CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT

Advices Received Here Say That Army Officer Has Been Sentenced to Prison.

Sixth Infantry, whose case, in which he was charged with deserting his wife in the Philippines, has attracted the attention of the army officials in the past few days, has got into a more serious difficulty in the archipelago, and is slated for dismissal and imprisonment, according to private information that has reached an army officer in Washington. According to the informant, the lieu-tenant has been tried by court-martial and found guilty of embezzlement and forgery. Aside from recommending that he be ejected from the service, the ver-dict names an additional sentence of fifhere state that the lieutenant also was found guilty of wife desertion, his wife being the Philippine woman, Conception with $50 a month alimony, and custody

These recent court decisions are unknown to the War Department, as no official reports to this effect have been

No Official Report.

It was stated at the Judge Advocate General's office yesterda" morning that no report that any new charges had been brought against the officer had been received there, although such pro-ceedings were not doubted. In case of such a verdict, the papers would be for-warded at once to the Judge Advocate General, for review, and if approved by the Secretary of War they would be submitted to the President, who alone can dismiss an officer. Not till the President had acted would the decision be given out officially.

At the Judge Advocate General's office it was stated that so far as known there, the case of the Philippine woman against Burbank was still pending in the civil courts at Leavenworth, Kan., ough the unofficial advices received from there are not doubted. When Burbank returned to the United States from the Philippines a few years ago agents of the Philippine woman appeared at Leavenworth, as he was about to be married. They produced a signed statement from her to the effect that they had been regularly married, while Bur bank declared they had not. Friends of the Philippine woman appealed to the War Department to punish the offinot provide for her, but he y, and said that, at least, she ap to believe that they were legal-

Wife Pursues Him.

Before the Kansas courts could settle the case, however, Burbank was ordered back to the Philippines with his regiment, and at present is on duty at Camp Downes, in the island of Leyte. After his return to the islands, his supposed wife made further trouble, and the military authorities there asked the War Department for permission to conduct a court-martial. This request was denied, ecause the civil case was still pending. Last summer, when Secretary Taft brought before him, and in order to who were claiming that justice could not be obtained, he granted permission for a trial. The results of that trial have not yet been learned at the War Department, and it is presumed, in the face of the latest advices, that new charges were brought against the officer which may finally get him out of the Wheelbarrows, Blackboards, and Girls' on upper Grand River avenue on a garden patch a family of father, mother, two sons and one daughter. The father earned $100 per month in a clerical position in a large wholesale house.

earned $100 per month in a clerical position in a large wholesale house. The boys cultivated the garden, making nearly as much more. The mother had a servant. Her table was always richly laden, in the Devonshire style. Her friends were always welcomed to that hospitable board. Her gowns were of the best. There were smiles for all on her pleasant face.

One day the "Western fever" struck the king of the home. Soon all had been dismantled and the family found themselves in the land of promises—chiefity promises—California.

Today, there stands in a sandy field beyond Pomona, on the edge of the Mojave desert, a little, rickety, two-room cabin of rough boards. The father and sons toil in the yellow glare of the sun to squeeze subsistence from a reluctant soil. The mother, bent, wrinkled, white, clad in tattered garments, works too, picking fruit and nuts and wielding a hoe.
